Shetland Divisions
Pre Entry $15   Post Entry $25

Shetlands must be registered to compete in this division. Ideal conformation characteristics of the registered Shetland:
- A strong muscular structure and square stance.
- Head is small with proportionately rounded ears pointing forward; a broad forehead with a slightly concave face tapering to a broad muzzle and sturdy jaw with open nostrils.
- A rounded barrel with well-sprung ribs, the brisket slightly below the elbow and short coupled; proportioned withers to elbow and elbow to ground without the appearance of dwarfism. An appearance of legginess is considered undesirable.
- A defined neck and throatlatch triangular in shape.
- A sloping shoulder that forms a triangle from point of shoulder to withers to head.
- Front legs straight with sturdy, wide cannon bone.
- Hind legs straight, proportioned, and plumb from buttocks to hock to ankle with strong bone.
- Hindquarters broad with substance and wide view from the rear.
- The back is short and wide along with well-rounded buttocks.
- The mane is full and long and the tail is full and long with a natural set.
- The hoof is well rounded, hard, and dense.

Shetland Halter:
Ponies and exhibitors will enter the ring as directed, line up side by side, and ponies will stand square. Ponies will be led one at a time at a walk away from the judge to a halfway point indicated by the ring steward, continue at a trot to a designated point, turn to the right with exhibitor on the outside of the pony, trot a short distance then trot back to return to the line up. All classes, including foal classes to be moved. All halter classes to be judged 50% on correct type and manners, 50% on conformation and way of going, unless stated otherwise.

For the Supreme Championship, the winners only of the mare, gelding, and stallion divisions will line up side by side in the ring to be judged. Ponies may be moved at the discretion of the judge(s). The Supreme Championship class is non-pointed with SPSNA.

Entry made in the name of the child/pony combination for classes 714-716. Pony should be under the control of the child as much as possible, with the adult holding a lead attached to the bridle at the cavesson or bit. Exhibitors may have one additional attendant in leadline classes. Judged 75% on child’s equitation and 25% on correct type, manners, performance, and suitability of pony. Walk only. These classes do not count toward the Best Child’s Pony award but do count toward lifetime achievement points for the pony.

714. Shetland Leadline (3 Years & Under)
715. Shetland Leadline (4-6 Years)
716. Shetland Leading Rein (Ages 8 & Under)

The leading rein must be attached to the cavesson only and the pony should be under control of the child at all times. Leader must be 14 years or older. Pony will walk both ways of the ring, lineup, and stand quietly. Each pony will be called from the line individually to walk out, and then trot back past the judge. Ponies will not be asked to back but may be asked to walk or trot over a ground pole. Judged 25% on child’s equitation and control of pony and 75% on pony’s correct type, performance, manners, and suitability. This class counts toward Best Child’s Pony.

717. SPSNA Equitation Walk

Entry made in the name of the child. Open to any beginning rider age 14 and under. To be judged 100% on rider’s equitation and ability to control the pony. This class does not count towards Best Child’s Pony.

Shetland Performance Division:

Entry made in the name of the pony. There is a limit of one rider per pony in the cross rails and over fences classes. Open to riders 17 and under as of January 1st of current year. Ponies entered in Cross Rails will complete a course of 4-8 fences not over 12 inches in height. Ponies entered in Over Fences will complete a course of 4-8 fences not over 18 inches in height. Both jumping courses may be trotted and/or cantered. Courses will be posted near the ring gate at least one hour prior to class start. Three refusals in either jumping course results in elimination. The pony will be judged 100% on performance, manners, suitability as a child’s mount, and correct type. Rider should be in complete control of pony. In addition to the leading rein class, all classes in the pony performance division count toward the Best Child’s Pony Award.
