MEG WILLS O'DANIEL

Meg Wills-O'Daniel, is a lifelong professional horsewoman. Meg is an expert in both English and Western riding. She has propelled many of her students to national championships and has worked with all levels of riders. She is familiar with multiple breeds of horses including gaited horses. Meg is an active WPCSA and a USEF Welsh judge. Meg is a board member of the American Horsemen Challenge Association and has judged the American Horsemen Challenge Association National Finals twice as well as numerous affiliate challenges. Learn how to execute obstacles in a way that strengthens your relationship with your horse. Meg will provide tools to improve your trail class scores whether you compete in hand or under saddle.

- * Special talk during dinner Saturday night by Meg Wills O'Daniel discussing topics such as Trail Obstacle rules, how to read/interpret a pattern, hints and tips.
- * Dinner talks are free for clinic participants, but participants must purchase their own meal. Place TBD.
- * The Fall Clinic is being produced and partially funded by the OKWPS/SC Region as part of its educational outreach program
